

ShopSphere Customer Terms and Conditions

Fictional knowledge-base document created for the ShopSphere AI Data Analyst/RAG academic project. This document is synthetic and should not be treated as a real company policy.

1. Account Responsibility

Customers are responsible for maintaining accurate account information and protecting their account credentials.

2. Use of Services

Customers must use ShopSphere services in accordance with applicable laws and the published service terms.

3. Orders and Payments

Customers are responsible for reviewing order details and maintaining a valid payment method for applicable purchases or subscriptions.

4. Subscription Services

Subscription customers are subject to the plan, billing, contract, cancellation, and other terms applicable to their selected subscription.

5. Customer Information

ShopSphere may process customer information as described in its applicable privacy documentation. Customers should review the current privacy notice for details.

6. Service Changes

ShopSphere may modify, suspend, or discontinue selected services or benefits subject to applicable terms and notice requirements.

7. Prohibited Activity

Customers must not misuse the service, attempt unauthorized access, submit fraudulent information, or interfere with the operation of ShopSphere systems.

8. Disputes and Support

Customers should first use official support channels to raise account, billing, or service concerns. Applicable dispute procedures are governed by the current terms.

9. Updates

These terms may be updated from time to time. The latest published version should be used when answering policy questions.
